PERSONAL PROJECTS

Automated Hydroponic System

Built A bot using Arduino and Raspberry pi which automates Hydroponic system by controlling various environmental factors Collaboratively designed the bot with a proficient team of four classmates,leveraging my knowledge in hardware integration and software programming. The result was an efficient and self-sustaining hydroponic system

RocketChat Server On Ubuntu Linux

This project involves deploying a Rocket.Chat server on Linux Ubuntu to streamline communication and collaboration within the organization. Objectives include installing necessary software components, configuring the server environment, implementing SSL/TLS encryption, and customizing the platform to align with organizational branding.

Bank Network System Design

Collaborated with a classmate to design and simulate a Simple Bank Network spanning four floors, each equipped with end devices. The server infrastructure included essential networking components such as a DHCP server for dynamic IP address allocation, a DNS server for website hosting and domain name resolution, and a Mail server for facilitating inter-network communication within the bank's infrastructure.
